CARS ATTACK!

The next day...

This is a reminder that you are all advised to stay inside as much as possible and avoid all vehicles.

Unfortunately the Angel is currently unavailable, so we must protect ourselves. Stay safe.

A pink cat-like character with large green eyes and a purple top, looking slightly nervous with its hand near its face.

Hi, uhh, sorry to bother you, but I just wanted to know if you're alright.

And I have a few questions.

A character with antelope-like horns and brown fur, wearing a red jacket, talking on a red mobile phone.

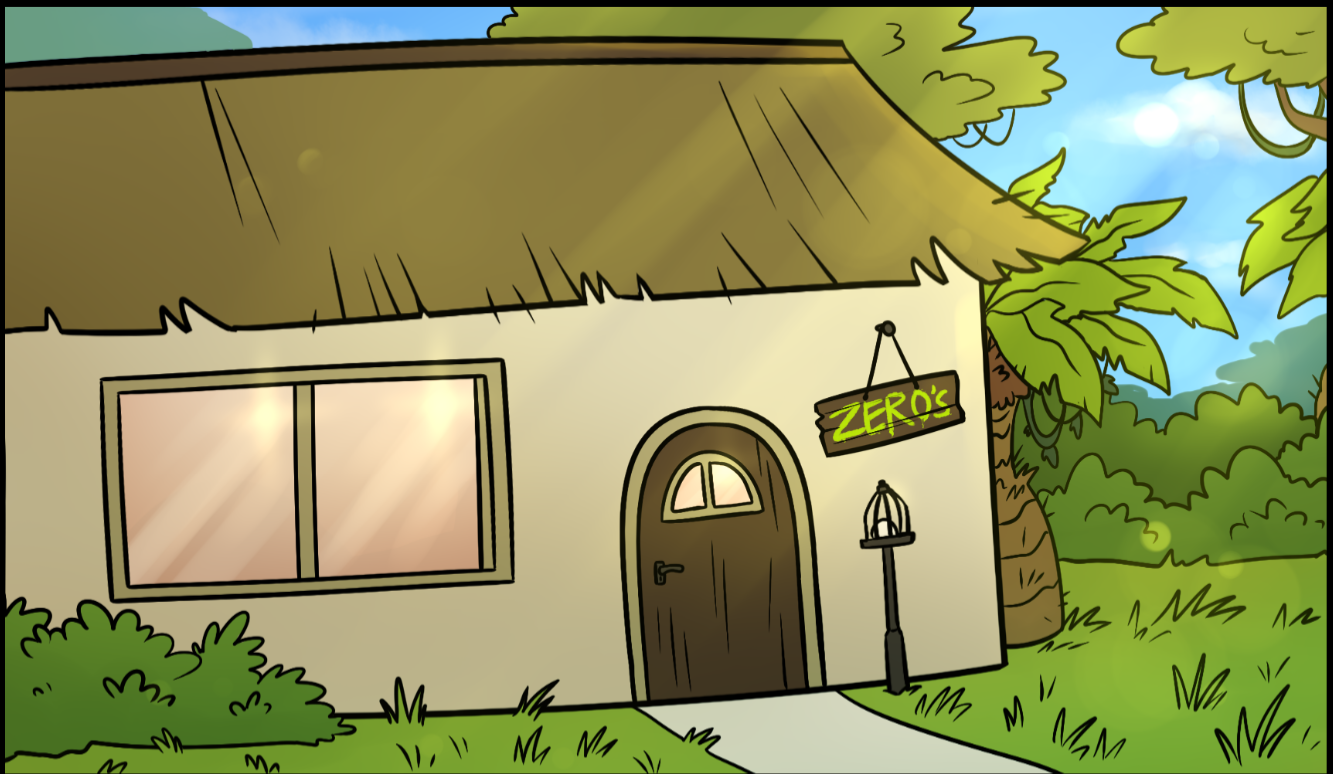

I'm fine. I got chased all the way home last night but I wasn't hurt. I don't know what's going on, but my family won't leave the house until it's over.

My husband just got injured a little by one of them flying robots so I'm packing up my stuff right now to go home and look after him. No point in being at work anyway since everyone's hiding. I don't see what's so important that the Angel can't be here anyway. Kinda suspicious if you ask me.

An orange bird-like character with a long beak and a green shirt, holding a grey mobile phone.

Yeah, my car tried to kill me so I smashed it up. No, I can't help you, I gotta make sure my boy stays out of trouble. Thanks anyway. Byyyyyyye!

A pink cat-like character with spiky pink hair, large green eyes, and a purple tank top. It is gesturing with its right hand.

Well, I'm trying to find the strongest and smartest people I can to help me fix whatever is going on.

A pink cat-like character with spiky pink hair, large green eyes, and a purple tank top.

I know you like to be useful really. So are you going to join us? We're checking out the Angel Tower since a few people noticed cars circling around it.

A green dragon-like character with orange and yellow flame-like hair, red eyes, and a white tank top. It is smiling.

Yeah, sure!

A green dragon-like character with orange and yellow flame-like hair, red eyes, and a white tank top. It has a neutral expression.

I mean, I have nothing better to do.

A green dragon-like character with orange and yellow flame-like hair, red eyes, and a white tank top. It has a slightly grumpy expression.

And I guess it would be nice if our town wasn't terrorised by flying machines.

A green dragon-like character with orange and yellow flame-like hair, red eyes, and a white tank top. It is sitting in a wooden chair, leaning back with its legs crossed.

Good. Now can I bring the rest of the team in?

A pink cat-like character with spiky pink hair, large green eyes, and a purple tank top. It is sitting in a wooden chair, leaning forward with its hands clasped.

Go ahead.

Come on, we don't have time f-
DON'T EAT HIM??!?

You're right.
I'll do that later
when he inevitably betrays us.

I wouldn't bother,
he's too spiky.

Oh, Tenta?

Hey kid!

Now... Let's put our lives on the line

You know we could've got there quicker if we went the other way.

We're almost at the bridge anyway. I chose this path so we're less likely to get chased by cars.

Well that's no fun.

Don't worry, I'm sure we'll get attacked at some point. Keep an eye out!

How are you two doing?

We're okay!

Just hope we get to rest fairly soon.

There's a hotel just across the bridge. We can stay there for the night. Just let me know if you need a break before then.
